Hi Abby,

It was great to have you as part of the keynote panel at CreateTech. It was the perfect opening to the conference and the four of you managed to cover all the most profound themes we were aiming for.

I hope you had a good time with us and were able to meet some of the other great people that came this year.

Also very happy to meet you! I hope to stay in touch and learn more about what you're doing at the Harvard Innovation Lab and elsewhere. One effort at Harvard on vendor relationship management is something I'm very interested in. Perhaps this is something the Innovation Lab is also working on?

Please feel free to ping me if you're ever in New York to come by our offices or grab a coffee or meal.

Very best regards and thanks again!

Chick
