Rudina,

Your panel was exactly what I was hoping for to begin our conference this year. I could have listened to you all for another hour. It initiated most if not all the themes that would thread their way through all the talks and work to follow. I was also very happy to meet your panelists.

I can't thank you enough for all the thought and effort you put into this.

And I hope we may be able to collaborate again in the future.

Very best regards,
Chick
